

THE MONDAY

REPORT

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE
JUNIOR COLLEGE DIVISION
202 SKYLAND BLVD
TUSCALOOSA, ALABAMA 35405

Lucy Kubiszyn, editor
January 31, 1983

DID YOU KNOW THE SHELTON STATE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION is the ONLY active alumni association of an Alabama junior college? If you would like to be part of this organization, come to the next alumni association meeting on Wednesday evening, February 9, at 7 p.m. in room 87. The alumni association is not limited to strictly alumni of the junior college. It is open to anyone who has attended Shelton State Community College for at least one quarter. (This includes students and former students of the technical division as well.) Dave Freeman and Tom Umphrey will speak at this meeting on Title III funding. This is a federal grant that could mean a great deal for the college in the future.

WHO'S WHO IN BLACK TUSCALOOSA

The third annual 'Who's Who in Black Tuscaloosa' will be held at the Bama Theater on Sunday, February 6, at 3:30 p.m. The theme this year is, 'The Black Woman, An Example of Superiority and Humility with a Christ Like Attitude.' The guest speaker will be Dr. Carl Malbury, vice-president and dean of Stillman College. Music will be by the Interdenominational Choir, the James Brown Gospel Choir, the Light of the World Choir, and The Shelton State Junior College Gospel Choir. The Reverend Joe Davis, director of the Christian Study Center, is in charge of the event.

HENRY RUBIN TO PRESENT PROGRAM

Don't forget the musical concert on Wednesday, February 2, at 11 a.m. Henry Rubin, University of Alabama violinist, will present a recital of varied music in the music room of Shelton State Community College. He will be assisted by Pam Gordy.

DON'T FORGET THE HIGH SCHOOL SCHOLAR BOWL WILL BE HELD WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 2, FROM 9 A.M. UNTIL 2 P.M. IN THE JUNIOR COLLEGE. A RECORD 21 SCHOOLS WILL BE ENTERING. DIANE LAYTON IS CHARIMAN OF THE EVENT.

EDITORIAL

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Record Series: Campus Newspaper
File: EG. 1-12-85
Date: 9-28-95

We at Shelton State Community College would like to take this moment to join the thousands of others expressing their sympathy to the family of former Alabama coach and athletic director Paul 'Bear' Bryant. History will record that he led the University of Alabama into its Golden Age of football. True heroes are few, and he was a hero to all of us. He will be missed by all, but the legend he leaves behind will be remembered by all of us forever.

ATTENTION FACULTY

The library has received a copy of the 1983 Tax Guide for Teachers. It will be available at the circulation desk. Since the library staff would like to keep it available for all faculty, they are asking that faculty members not check it out for more than two days. The Federal Tax Guides also available on the index table.

CAREER DAY TERMED GREAT SUCCESS

Bessie German has announced that over 593 participants attended the recent Career Day offered at Shelton State Community College. Mrs. German said that 526 high school students, 16 high school principals and counselors, and 51 representatives from Alabama colleges and institutions attended. Mrs. German also added a very special note of appreciation to the Shelton Singers and tour guides for their help.

ASTRONAUT TO SPEAK AT SHELTON

Dr. Ronald Haybron, a nuclear physicist with the National Aeronautics and Space Administration will give a public lecture on Monday, January 31, at 7:30 p.m. in the biology department auditorium at the University of Alabama. His topic, 'The U.S. Space Shuttle Program,' will be of interest to anyone interested in NASA and its programs. ON THURSDAY, February 3, Dr. Haybron will speak to Guesna Dohrman's astronomy class at 5:30 p.m. in room 53 of the junior college. The public is invited to attend.

STUDENT LIFE PLAN ACTIVITIES

The Student Life Committee will meet Friday, February 4, at 12:15 p.m. in Dean Lee's office. Topics will include 'Mystery Valentines' and a reception for the winner of the 1983 Miss Shelton State Pageant. Anyone interested in working with this very active campus group should plan on attending.

WOMEN'S SOFTBALL TEAM SPONSORS RAFFLE

The Shelton State women's softball team is sponsoring a raffle on a $100 gift certificate or $100 in cash. Raffle tickets are $1 and may be purchased from any Shelton softball team member, coaches, or from Dean Lee's office. Proceeds from the raffle will go towards travel expenses for out of state tournaments for the team.

PARKING RULES NOTICE

Please do not park in the handicapped parking zones unless you have a handicapped sticker on your car. Violations will result in a $25 fine from the city. Remember that parking cars and motor cycles in a no parking zone next to a handicapped place also prevents handicapped use.

Shelton State decals are honored at the University of Alabama in the Red sticker zones only. If students receive a ticket, they should be brought by Dean Lee's office.

CALLIGRAPHY WORKSHOP PLANNED

Denys Taipale of Great Falls, Montana will be in Tuscaloosa February 11-13 to present a workshop on calligraphy, featuring italic handwriting as well as several other styles. Class will begin Friday evening at 7 - 9 p.m. and Saturday from 9 a.m. - 5 p.m. Class time for Sunday will be the same as Saturday. The cost of the three-day workshop is $50, and the classes will be held at Woods Hall. Class size is limited to 25 and a $30 deposit is required. If you are interested, mail your deposit along with name and address to Maureen Moenemann, 1026 Indian Hills, Tuscaloosa, Alabama 35406.

BSU TO BE FORMED AT SHELTON

A new campus organization, the Baptist Student Union group, will be formed on the campus of Shelton State Junior College. BSU's are already all over the state in other colleges and universities and Shelton is working closely with the University BSU in forming this group. College sponsors are Martha Ann Hill and Wade Cooper. If you are interested in joining, contact one of them or Dean Lee's office.

DON'T FORGET. ON TUESDAY, FEB. 8, THE TUSCALOOSA BRANCH OF THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY WOMEN WILL PRESENT THE NICOLO MARIONETTE PRODUCTION OF 'BEAUTY AND THE BEAST.' PERFORMANCES WILL BE AT 4 AND 6 P.M. AT THE JUNIOR COLLEGE AUDITORIUM. TICKETS ARE $1 IN ADVANCE AND $2 AT THE DOOR.

JOB DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

The Cooperative Education program at Shelton is underway and hunting qualified students interested in employment positions. If you know of a business that may need an employee and would be interested in hiring a student, let us know.

If you are a student, interested in earning money and receiving experience in your field of study while earning academic credit, stop by the counseling center for an application. If you are already working and have a job related to your major and work area and wish to receive academic credit, see Brian Gankler or Evelyn Mettee.

TECHNICAL TALK

Kim Inman's practical nursing staying busy these days with a trip to the physical therapy department at Druid City Hospital on Tuesday and a Chinese luncheon (courtesy of Shelton's Humphrey Lee) on Friday. . Lyda Black's business law class also observed a trial in session at the Tuscaloosa County courthouse this week. The trial was held in Judge Claude Harris' court. . Don't forget! All Shelton State students can use the University of Alabama library if they present their Shelton State ID card. . Renee Carr and Theresa Thomas have entered and are preparing for the Miss Shelton State Pageant in February. We wish them luck. . Cosmetology students had a curl seminar in their department last week. Instructors from 'Stay in Touch' from Meridian, Mississippi, demonstrated advance technology in hair.

FROM THE FIRE COLLEGE

The Alabama State Fire College will sponsor the eighth annual Fire chief's Conference February 1-4 in Tuscaloosa. Registration will begin at 9 a.m. on Tuesday, February 1, at the state fire college, 2015 McFarland Blvd., East. The program will begin at 10 a.m. The registration fee of $25 includes portfolio, morning and afternoon coffee breaks and hand-out materials. The conference will cover topics of importance to every fire chief in the state. Subjects included are of current interest and will be presented by experienced speakers. Fire equipment displays and demonstration will also be featured.

SHELTON INSTRUCTOR DENNIS SAMPSON will give a poetry reading of selections from his manuscript, The Double Genesis, on February 3 at 8 p.m. in Smith Hall, U. of Ala., as part of the Black Warrior Review reader series. All faculty, students and friends are invited to attend.